BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that instances of belated applications for enrolment as Advocate long after the insertion of the notices in the Gazette or the delivery thereof to the Registrar have come to the notice of the Kenya Court, that the Judges think that the existing rule on the point has to be so amended as not to defeat the purpose which it is intended to serve and requests sanction to the accompanying NOTES AND ORDERS. application amending the Rules under the Legal Practitioner's Regulation.

Enclosed

According to the present rule a person has to be enrolled within 3 months from the date of application. No penalty has been imposed nor can be imposed if it is not so done within 3 months.

The penalty seems to be that a fresh notice will have to be published in the Gazette how the rules have been departed are not known nor the difficulties explained. On the other hand if the proposed rule is passed, it will be unnecessarily harassing young and who would like to avoid memorandums and drafts briefless lawyers. As it affects the members of the Bar, the Law Associations may perhaps be consulted
